

ICR SmartBox-IIS: Intelligent Text Overlay Box for POS Applications

FEATURES

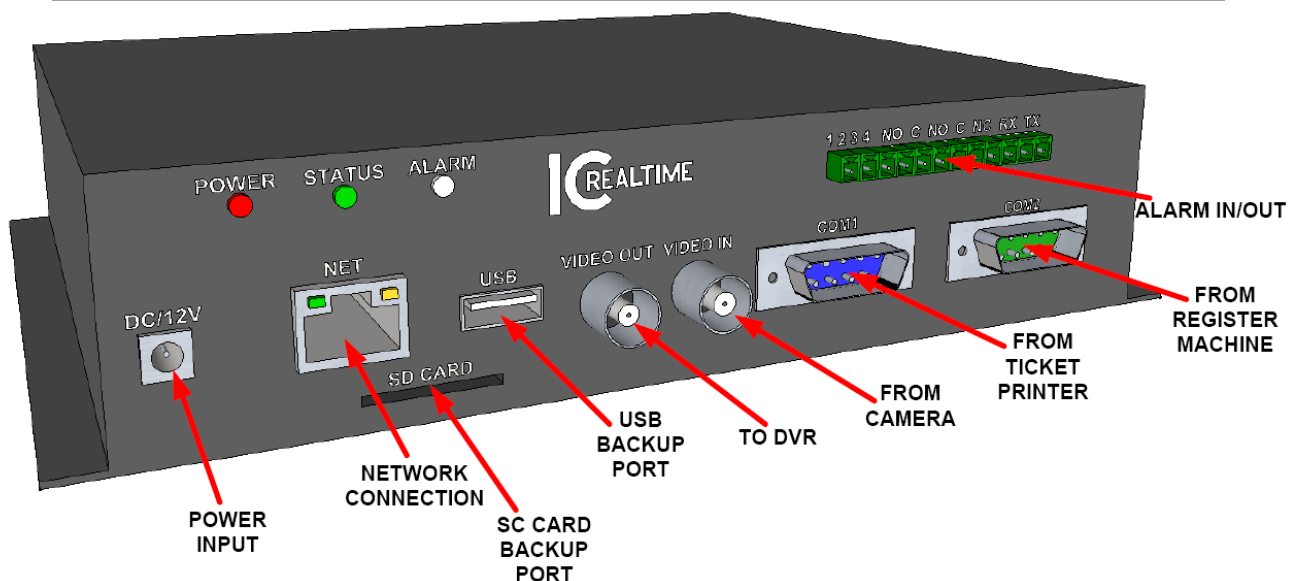

- Accurate Real-time Text Overlay - up to 40-character wide text, size and color changeable.
- Adaptability - support most common cash registers on the market.
- Highly Scalable - can be used for single cash register application to multiple POS points large store, to big chain-store with large number of multiple POS storefronts.
- Management Software is able to manage/control thousands of POSs on a layered structure.
- Large Storage - built-in flash memory allows up-to 10000 sales receipts being stored before being uploaded from the central management server. This practically eliminates data loss due to network/server interruptions.
- DVR Integration - fully integrated with ICRealtime's H.264 series DVRs.
- Instant correlation between sales activities, sales tickets information, and recorded video images.
- Selective search method, you can search one particular sales item within certain time period and then watch the interested sales event on recorded video.
- High Intelligence - strong capability in analyzing sales tickets/receipts, user configurable search fields.
- Easy to Use - auto search feature (similar to IP cameras), Embedded design for easy installation, configuration and software upgrade through network.

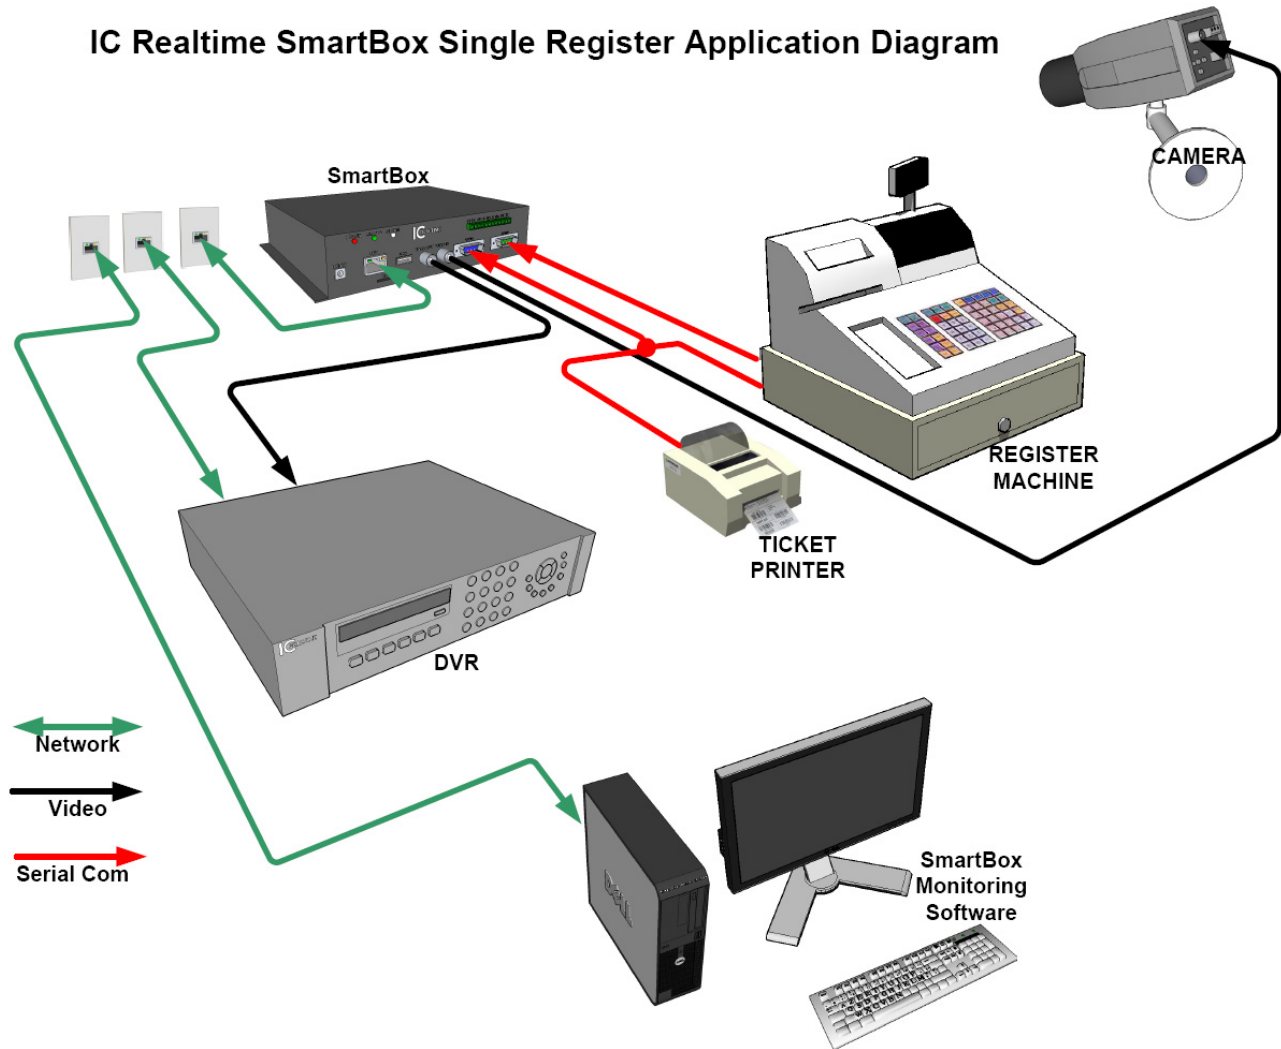

OVERVIEW

The ICR-SmartBox-IIS is an intelligent real-time text overlay interface, specially designed for POS applications. Easy to integrate with ICR-DVRs, and it is capable to insert up to 40-character wide text, with size and color changeable options. The ICR-SmartBox-IIS has wide adaptability to support most cash registers on the market. It can be used for a single cash register application or multiple points of sales in large stores, such as hypermarkets with a large number of multiple POS storefronts. The SmartBox Management Software is able to manage/control thousands of POSs on a layered structure. It features built-in flash memory that allows up-to 10000 sales receipts to be stored before being uploaded from the central management server. Addressable networking facilitates to link each SmartBox with specific POS.

SmartBox-IMS Intelligent Management Software (optional) allows selective search method, such as item number, transaction amount, card number, date & time, this allows you search one particular sales item within certain time period and then watch the interested sales event on recorded video.

IC Realtime SmartBox Single Register Application Diagram

IC Realtime SmartBox Multiple Registers Application Diagram

